INCLUSIONS

CAMS provides:

- equitable access for people from Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) backgrounds to services and programs in response to recognised needs.
- help for people from a CALD background to participate in community life including educational, economic, political, social and cultural activities.
- help connecting CALD individuals and groups with the wider community.
- help for CALD people to become involved in community activities.
- help to engage with skills and training opportunities.
- help to share cultures.
- learning experiences about Australian culture.
- help to establish a social/community group or community project.
- advocacy and support for people to express their concerns to government.

CAMS also helps with:

- information and special workshops.
- filling and completing forms.
- referrals to appropriate agencies and organisations.
- Providing a free play group at Alexandra Park West, Quay St., for kids 0-5 years old and parents/carers on Friday mornings during school terms.

CAMS is funded by Multicultural Affairs Queensland (MAQ) within the Department of Local Government, Racing and Multicultural Affairs.
